

DE BRAUW BLACKSTONE WESTBROEK

De Brauw advised Takeaway.com on its acquisition of Delivery Hero's German food delivery activities

De Brauw is proud to announce that we advised Takeaway.com, the leading online food delivery marketplace in continental Europe, on its acquisition of Delivery Hero's German food delivery activities. The transaction will enable Takeaway.com to offer an enhanced proposition for both consumers and partner restaurants, and is expected to generate material synergies.

The deal involved a great deal of collaboration across disciplines within De Brauw - who advised on a broad range of issues. Furthermore, we also worked closely with Best Friend firm, Hengeler Mueller.

Lead partner Klaas de Vries says "We are proud to have been Takeaway.com's partner in this major transaction in line with its strategy to drive for sustainable market positions."
