CROSS-BORDER TRANSACTIONS THAT ARE RCBAs ONLY IF THE MAIN BENEFIT-TEST IS SATISFIED

General Hallmarks

1. Confidentiality agreements

An arrangement where the relevant taxpayer or a participant in the arrangement undertakes to comply with a condition of confidentiality which may require them not to disclose how the arrangement could secure a tax advantage vis-à-vis other intermediaries or the tax authorities.

2. Success fees

An arrangement where the intermediary is entitled to receive a fee (or interest, remuneration for finance costs and other charges) for the arrangement and that fee is fixed by reference to: (a) the amount of the tax advantage derived from the arrangement; or (b) whether or not a tax advantage is actually derived from the arrangement. This would include an obligation on the intermediary to partially or fully refund the fees where the intended tax advantage derived from the arrangement was not partially or fully achieved.

3. Standardised documentation

An arrangement that has substantially standardised documentation and/or structure and is available to more than one relevant taxpayer without a need to be substantially customised for implementation.

Specific Hallmarks

4. Transactions with loss companies

An arrangement whereby a participant in the arrangement takes contrived steps which consist in acquiring a loss-making company, discontinuing the main activity of such company and using its losses in order to reduce its tax liability, including through a transfer of those losses to another jurisdiction or by the acceleration of the use of those losses.

5. Conversion of income streams to achieve a more favourable tax treatment

An arrangement that has the effect of converting income into capital, gifts or other categories of revenue which are taxed at a lower level or exempt from tax.

6. Circular transactions

An arrangement which includes circular transactions resulting in the round-tripping of funds, namely through involving interposed entities without other primary commercial function or transactions that offset or cancel each other or that have other similar features.

7. Base erosion payment

An arrangement that involves deductible cross-border payments made between two or more associated enterprises where at least one of the following conditions occurs:

- a. the recipient is resident for tax purposes in a jurisdiction, but that jurisdiction does not impose any corporate tax or imposes corporate tax at the rate of zero or almost zero;
  - b. the payment benefits from a full exemption from tax in the jurisdiction where the recipient is resident for tax purposes;
  - c. the payment benefits from a preferential tax regime in the jurisdiction where the recipient is resident for tax purposes.

CROSS-BORDER TRANSACTIONS THAT ARE RCBA REGARDLESS WHETHER THE MAIN BENEFIT-TEST IS SATISFIED

Specific Hallmarks

1. Base erosion payments involving stateless entities and entities in non-cooperative jurisdictions
An arrangement that involves deductible cross-border payments made between two or more associated enterprises where at least one of the following conditions occurs:
  - a. the recipient is not resident for tax purposes in any tax jurisdiction;
  - b. although the recipient is resident for tax purposes in a jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is included in a list of third-country jurisdictions which have been assessed by Member States collectively or within the framework of the OECD as being non-cooperative.
2. Double dip depreciation
Deductions for the same depreciation on the asset are claimed in more than one jurisdiction.
3. Double tax exemptions or tax credits
Relief from double taxation in respect of the same item of income or capital is claimed in more than one jurisdiction.
4. Different considerations recognized
There is an arrangement that includes transfers of assets and where there is a material difference in the amount being treated as payable in consideration for the assets in those jurisdictions involved.

Hallmarks relating to undermining exchange of information

5. Avoidance of information exchange on Financial Accounts
An arrangement which may have the effect of undermining the reporting obligation under the laws implementing Union legislation or any equivalent agreements on the automatic exchange of Financial Account information, including agreements with third countries, or which takes advantage of the absence of such legislation or agreements. Such arrangements include at least the following:

- a. the use of an account, product or investment that is not, or purports not to be, a Financial Account, but has features that are substantially similar to those of a Financial Account;
- b. the transfer of Financial Accounts or assets to, or the use of jurisdictions that are not bound by the automatic exchange of Financial Account information with the State of residence of the relevant taxpayer;
- c. the reclassification of income and capital into products or payments that are not subject to the automatic exchange of Financial Account information;
- d. the transfer or conversion of a Financial Institution or a Financial Account or the assets therein into a Financial Institution or a Financial Account or assets not subject to reporting under the automatic exchange of Financial Account information;
- e. the use of legal entities, arrangements or structures that eliminate or purport to eliminate reporting of one or more Account Holders or Controlling Persons under the automatic exchange of Financial Account information;
- f. arrangements that undermine, or exploit weaknesses in, the due diligence procedures used by Financial Institutions to comply with their obligations to report Financial Account information, including the use of jurisdictions with inadequate or weak regimes of enforcement of anti-money-laundering legislation or with weak transparency requirements for legal persons or legal arrangements.

6. Privacy structures

An arrangement involving a non-transparent legal or beneficial ownership chain with the use of persons, legal arrangements or structures:

- a. that do not carry on a substantive economic activity supported by adequate staff, equipment, assets and premises; and
- b. that are incorporated, managed, resident, controlled or established in any jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of residence of one or more of the beneficial owners of the assets held by such persons, legal arrangements or structures; and
- c. where the beneficial owners of such persons, legal arrangements or structures, as defined in Directive (EU) 2015/849, are made unidentifiable.

Hallmarks relating to transfer pricing

7. Transfer pricing safe harbours

An arrangement which involves the use of unilateral safe harbour rules.

8. Hard-to-value intangibles

An arrangement involving the transfer of hard-to-value intangibles. The term “hard-to-value intangibles” covers intangibles or rights in intangibles for which, at the time of their transfer between associated enterprises:

- a. no reliable comparables exist; and
- b. at the time the transaction was entered into, the projections of future cash flows or income expected to be derived from the transferred intangible, or the assumptions used in valuing the intangible are highly uncertain, making it difficult to predict the level of ultimate success of the intangible at the time of the transfer.

9. Business restructurings

An arrangement involving an intragroup cross-border transfer of functions and/or risks and/or assets, if the projected annual earnings before interest and taxes (EBIT) during the three-year period after the transfer, of the transferor or transferors, are less than 50% of the projected annual EBIT of such transferor or transferors if the transfer had not been made.
